"He who hears music feels his solitude peopled at once." — Robert Browning

Hospice SLO County Threshold Singers sing for those at the thresholds of life and dying. With gentle voices, simple songs, and sincere kindness, our singers soothe clients, families, and caregivers alike.

Our singers visit homes, assisted living facilities, hospitals, and skilled nursing facilities throughout the county, singing for individuals experiencing life-limiting or end-of-life conditions. They hope to offer peace, tranquility and what has often been described as a "spiritual experience" for those for whom they sing.

Using soft, lullaby voices, our singers blend in harmony or sometimes in unison. They offer their singing as gentle blessings, not as entertainment. Most of the songs are very short, so their repetition is conducive to rest and comfort. Hospice SLO County Threshold Singers is a chapter of the international Threshold Choir network.
