

Hospice SLO County In-Home Volunteer Training

BE PART OF OUR TEAM!

For over 40 years, Hospice SLO County has depended on the generosity and time of volunteers who have offered their voice for kindness, listen with ears of compassion, and open their hearts with love. This comprehensive 30-hour training explores:

- attitudes about dying and death
- history of hospice
- current medical and non-medical approaches to end of life care
- Communication skills
- Spiritual, practical, and emotional support needs of clients and families including family dynamics
- Anticipatory grief and bereavement

Our training will be offered virtually on

May 3, 10, 17, 24, June 7, 14, 21, 28

(No class on Memorial Day) From 2-5 PM on Zoom

A camera and audio (phone or microphone) are required to participate.

This training is a prerequisite for other training offered by Hospice SLO County including: End-of-Life Doula, Grief Companions, and Community Response.

Preregistration is required. Training is free to attend.

Donations are greatly appreciated. If you would like to help cover the costs of this training, please consider making a donation when you register.

To preregister, visit www.hospiceslo.org or call (805) 544-2266
