

Hospice SLO County In-Home Volunteer Training

BE PART OF OUR TEAM!

Since 1977, Hospice SLO County has depended on the generosity and time of volunteers to provide our free services to San Luis Obispo County residents who are facing a life-limiting illness, end of life, or grief. This comprehensive 30-hour training explores:

- Exploring personal attitudes about dying and death
- The history of hospice and current medical and non-medical approaches to end of life care
- Communication skills
- Spiritual, practical, and emotional support needs of clients and families including family dynamics
- Anticipatory grief and bereavement

Our training will be offered on Tuesdays for eight weeks.

September 27 and November 15 will be in-person

Hospice SLO County office - 1304 Pacific St. SLO

October 4, 11, 18, 25, November 1, 8 will be on Zoom

A camera and audio (phone or microphone) are required to participate.

2:00 PM to 5:00 PM

Preregistration is required. Training is free to attend.

Donations are greatly appreciated. If you would like to help cover the costs of this training, please consider making a donation when you register.

To preregister, visit www.hospiceslo.org or call (805) 544-2266

This training is a prerequisite for other training offered by Hospice SLO County including: End-of-Life Doula and Community Grief Response.
